YOU BELONG RIGHT HERE

There's so much to discover while living your best life at Twin Oaks Hollister. New neighbors, new interests, new adventures – all within a gated community that's big enough to offer all the things you want, yet small enough to still feel close and secure.

COMMUNITY MEANS COMING TOGETHER

Our homeowners enjoy new and engaging activities including fitness classes, curated travel opportunities, and educational programming to pursue the benefits of lifelong learning.

Our full-time Lifestyle Director keeps the calendar as full as you want it, with on-site classes, off-site excursions, and enough neighbor-led groups to put your day-planner to the test.

OUR LIFESTYLE PILLARS

The core principles that guide everything we do, promising a rewarding lifestyle for all of our Twin Oaks community members

HEALTH & WELLNESS

Living well means embracing fitness, nutrition, relaxation, and fun. With Hazel Hawkins Memorial Hospital nearby, we offer health clinics with local partners. The Cannery Club hosts indoor and outdoor fitness classes like yoga and cycling, along with cooking demos. Stay active with pickleball, bocce, and swimming, and unwind in our year-round heated spa or covered loggia.

LIFELONG LEARNING

Continued learning is vital in helping us feel connected, fulfilled and happier while keeping the brain healthy. It encourages us to stay curious, expand our knowledge or learn a new skill. From on-site presentations and lecture events on personal development to local classes at Gavilan Community College, Twin Oaks offers opportunities to expand your knowledge and skills.

SOCIAL ENGAGEMENT

Connect, make new friends, forge new bonds, and discover new adventures, with our calendar of events that includes something for everyone. The Cannery Club is the ideal social space to relax with friends, enjoy the pool or a game of bocce and pickleball. Twin Oaks also offers member clubs for hiking, brewing, gardening, books, art and many more!

ROOTED IN HOLLISTER

Pursue new passions, while discovering Hollister's best hidden gems. You'll feel right at home in Hollister, where you can get to know the local farmers markets, restaurants and shops in the charming downtown district. Explore the natural beauty of nearby hiking trails and discover your favorite local wineries in the rolling hills that surround Hollister.

DISCOVER WHAT'S NEARBY

Surrounded by the beautiful Diablo and Gabilan coastal mountain ranges among the rolling hills and orchards of the San Benito Valley, Twin Oaks is a perfectly located and thoughtfully-planned, gated community with all amenities complete and ready for you.

Just mere moments away from the South Bay, this community is located just under an hour from San Jose and a short 30-mile drive from Monterey Bay. Hollister is also just 40 minutes from the Monterey Peninsula, and less than an hour from Silicon Valley.

The Twin Oaks neighborhood is also very walkable – less than a mile to Hazel Hawkins Hospital and a large shopping center with Target, eateries and more.
